 Mission Training Center (in NYC) committee reports that a building of interest has been found. "It meets the criteria for our Missions Training Center better than any previous building we have looked at. We are asking you to be in prayer about this, and we are going to continue to pursue this with energy." Please be in prayer for this exciting new development.

 Donations to the Alms Fund are being received for the Shirk medical bills. Mark "Alms Fund" on the memo line.

Reminder: Two BMA overseers, Elvin Ressler and Jay Laughman, will be at Calvary April 28-29 to hear comments and concerns from the congregation. Please sign-up on the sheet in the hall or contact the office if you would like to talk with them.

About these interviews, Elvin writes: When Linford's resignation letter was read, it was noted that there were issues of concern that he raised and that others within the congregation have also raised. The church council has invited BMA overseers to explore concerns within the congregation. Brother Jay Laughman and I want to encourage all of you who have fears, concerns, feelings of uncertainty to sign up and share them with us. We welcome your compliments for your leadership as well. We want to hear your heart. We will keep your sharing confidential. After discerning what we have heard, we will share with the leadership what we have heard and try to help them process the information and seek a healthy way forward.

Elvin Ressler, Overseer
